

World Religions 30

Assignment Booklet #10

Chapter 10: Religion in the New Millennium

Name: _____

Part One: Multiple-Choice Items

Read each item carefully and decide which choice best completes the statement or answers the question. Type the letter of your choice in the blank space before the item. (20 marks).

_____	1. Religious pluralism most nearly refers to A. the coexistence and interaction of many religions B. one religion replacing all others C. the end of all belief D. a single government creed
_____	2. Demography is the study of A. populations and their changes B. sacred texts only C. temple architecture D. prayer postures
_____	3. A census is mainly used to A. count and describe a population B. create a holy day C. define doctrine D. abolish immigration
_____	4. Interfaith dialogue is best described as A. respectful exchange across traditions B. forcing one religion on another C. rejection of belief D. political censorship
_____	5. Fundamentalism differs from extremism because extremism may A. justify violence or coercion B. reject all scripture C. end all ritual D. support pluralism automatically
_____	6. Multiculturalism refers to A. many cultures living within one society B. the absence of any religion C. only two cultures sharing space D. a form of census counting
_____	7. Reasonable accommodation in religion usually means A. adjusting practices fairly when rights can be respected B. giving one religion total control C. removing all public law D. ignoring human rights
_____	8. Secularization generally refers to A. declining public influence of religion in some areas B. stronger ritual fasting C. the spread of pilgrimage D. a new scripture
_____	9. Immigration has changed Canada by A. increasing religious diversity B. eliminating pluralism C. ending interfaith contact D. making all faiths identical
_____	10. Globalization can affect religion by A. increasing contact among traditions B. keeping communities isolated C. removing all media D. freezing culture in place
_____	11. Prejudice is best defined as A. judging people unfairly in advance

	B. a census category C. an interfaith festival D. a sacred vow
_____	12. Tolerance is valuable, but by itself it may still fall short of A. deep understanding and respect B. free speech C. demographic research D. artistic freedom
_____	13. Religion may still matter in the twenty-first century because many people still seek A. meaning, identity, and community B. only census data C. only political conflict D. total uniformity
_____	14. A demographic study may use A. percentages, categories, and trends B. miracles only C. sacred relics only D. temple offerings only
_____	15. Which group in the chapter is presented as a danger to religion and society when it turns violent? A. extremists B. census workers C. demographers D. interfaith organizers
_____	16. A population census in Canada may include questions about A. language, age, and religion B. only mythological heroes C. only temple design D. none of the above
_____	17. The chapter suggests that new media can A. spread both understanding and misinformation B. eliminate all conflict C. remove religious identity D. replace every community
_____	18. One goal of interfaith cooperation is to A. build understanding and reduce prejudice B. erase all differences C. end free discussion D. create one world religion
_____	19. Religious freedom in Canada is important because it protects A. belief, conscience, and practice B. only majority views C. only secular identity D. no public discussion
_____	20. The future of religion in Canada will likely continue to be shaped by A. diversity and change B. one uniform tradition C. complete isolation D. the end of migration

Part Two: Matching

Choose the letter of the term that best describes the concept or completes the sentence. Terms may be used more than once, and not all terms will be used. Enter the letter of the term into the blank space beside each statement. (15 marks).

Answer	Statement	Terms
_____	1. The coexistence and interaction of many religions or worldviews.	A. pluralism B. multiculturalism C. secularization D. demography E. census F. interfaith dialogue G. fundamentalism H. extremism I. tolerance J. prejudice K. reasonable accommodation L. immigration M. globalization N. demographic study O. religious freedom
_____	2. A society made up of many cultures.
_____	3. A decline in the public influence or participation of religion in some areas.
_____	4. The study of populations and their changes.
_____	5. A count and description of a population.
_____	6. Respectful exchange across religious traditions.
_____	7. A strongly traditional or literal approach to religion.
_____	8. A radical approach that may justify coercion or violence.
_____	9. Allowing difference, though not always understanding it deeply.
_____	10. Unfairly judging people in advance.
_____	11. Adjusting practices fairly while respecting rights and responsibilities.
_____	12. Movement of people that can change a country's religious makeup.
_____	13. Growing worldwide connection across societies and traditions.
_____	14. Research that uses categories, trends, and percentages to understand populations.
_____	15. Protection for belief, conscience, and religious practice.

Part Three: True or False

Read each statement carefully and decide if it is true or false. Type T or F in each blank beside the statement to indicate your choice for each. (15 marks).

_____	1. Religious pluralism means one religion must dominate the public sphere.
_____	2. Demography is the study of populations and their changes.
_____	3. A census can provide information about language, age, and religion.
_____	4. Interfaith dialogue aims at respectful exchange.
_____	5. Fundamentalism and extremism are exactly the same in every respect.
_____	6. Extremism can involve coercion or violence.
_____	7. Multiculturalism has no connection to religious diversity.
_____	8. Immigration can affect Canada's religious landscape.
_____	9. Tolerance may still be weaker than full understanding and respect.
_____	10. Prejudice can damage religious coexistence.
_____	11. Reasonable accommodation has nothing to do with rights or fairness.
_____	12. New media can spread both useful information and harmful misinformation.
_____	13. Religious freedom protects only the beliefs of the majority.
_____	14. Demographic studies often use percentages and trends.
_____	15. The future of religion in Canada will likely continue to involve diversity and change.

Part Four: Written-Response Items

Respond to the following items on the lines below the items. Attach additional pages if you need more space. (48 marks).

1. Explain what religious pluralism means in Canada. (4 marks)

2. Describe two ways immigration has changed Canada's religious landscape. (4 marks)

3. Explain the difference between demography and a census. (4 marks)

4. Why do researchers study religion using percentages, trends, and demographic categories? (4 marks)

5. Explain the value of interfaith dialogue in a diverse society. (4 marks)

6. Compare fundamentalism and extremism. (4 marks)

7. Describe two dangers of prejudice or stereotyping in religious life. (4 marks)

8. Explain what reasonable accommodation means in relation to religion. (4 marks)

9. How can new media or globalization create both opportunities and tensions for religion? (4 marks)

10. Describe one challenge posed by consumerism or secularization to religious communities. (4 marks)

11. Explain why tolerance alone may not be enough without understanding and respect. (4 marks)

12. Predict one way religion in Canada may continue to change in the next generation. (4 marks)

Part Five: Student-Choice

Select either Option A or Option B and complete the associated tasks. Use reliable sources and attach additional pages if you need more room. (16 marks).

Option A: Canadian Interfaith Example

Using reliable sources, research one Canadian example of interfaith or multi-faith activity. Then respond to the following items:

1. Identify the Canadian example you selected. (2 marks)

2. Describe it in sufficient detail. (4 marks)

3. Explain which benefits of pluralism or dialogue are visible in your example. (4 marks)

4. Describe one challenge the example may still face. (3 marks)

5. Provide a bibliography of at least two sources using proper format. (3 marks)

Option B: Demographic Snapshot

Using reliable sources such as Statistics Canada or another trustworthy database, examine one demographic trend related to religion in Canada. Then respond to the following items:

1. Identify the trend you selected and the source you used. (2 marks)

2. Summarize the data in sufficient detail. (4 marks)

3. Explain what the trend suggests about change in Canadian religious life. (4 marks)

4. Describe one limitation or caution a reader should keep in mind when interpreting the data. (3 marks)

5. Provide a bibliography of at least two sources using proper format. (3 marks)

End of Assignment Booklet 10

After you have completed all items, submit your work according to your course instructions.