Marks will be deducted for spelling, grammatical, and convention errors that impede communication and are below the standards expected at a 20-1 level. Each speaker is worth one point, each discussion two. (12 MARKS)

QUOTATION	SPEAKER	SIGNIFICANCE
But wherefore could not I pronounce “Amen”? / I had most need of blessing, and “Amen” / Stuck in my throat.
Upon my head they placed a fruitless crown / And put a barren scepter in my grip, / Thence to be wrenched from an unlineal hand[.]
By the pricking of my thumbs, / Something wicked this way comes.
I have no words: / My voice is in my sword: thou bloodier villain / Than terms can give thee out!

IV. INSTRUCTIONS—THE PUZZLE

Fully address the following item. Demonstrate your understanding of narrative and dramatic purpose. Marks will be deducted for spelling, grammatical, and convention errors that impede communication and are below the standards expected at a 20-1 level. (10 MARKS)

The murder of Duncan is committed offstage. The murders of Act IV Scene 2 are committed in front of the audience. Dramatically, what is the difference?

V. INSTRUCTIONS—THE PLAYER

These lines, delivered by Macbeth shortly before he is killed, are magnificent. Demonstrate your understanding of Shakespearean prose and paraphrase them. Take care not to offend me with sloppy thinking or sloppy writing; these lines deserve only the best. Make it so, citizen. (10 MARKS)

To-morrow, and to-morrow, and to-morrow,
Creeps in this petty pace from day to day,
To the last syllable of recorded time;
And all our yesterdays have lighted fools
The way to dusty death. Out, out, brief candle!
Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player
That struts and frets his hour upon the stage
And then is heard no more: it is a tale
Told by an idiot, full of sound and fury,
Signifying nothing.
