

SOCIAL STUDIES

Perspective Essay Writing

Examine each source. Write a response in which you:

- interpret each source, explain the perspective(s) presented, and discuss the links between the competing values of individualism and collectivism.
- Identify and explain one or more of the relationships that exist among the sources.

Suggestions for Writing:

- Organize your response to effectively address the tasks in the assignment.
- Proofread and edit your response.

Analyzing Sources

When analyzing ANY source, one should:

- Identify & Explain the context of the source
 - CONTEXT: the set of circumstances or facts that surround a particular event, situation, etc.
 - Background info!
- Identify & Explain the perspective of the source (purpose/message)
 - Source's Creator: Artist, speaker, singer, photographer
- Use evidence from the source that supports this perspective
- If possible, try to identify who (philosopher?) may share this perspective!

When analyzing PERSPECTIVE, consider:

- WHO'S PERSPECTIVE?
 - Attitude towards the topic?
 - Sympathizer/Supporter/Critic OR No opinion
 - Group (Society, ideology, religion, race, gender etc.)
 - Context?
 - Time?
 - Location?
 - Position? (Gov't official etc, slave etc)
 - Bias?
 - May be one of the above, or any combination of all of them!

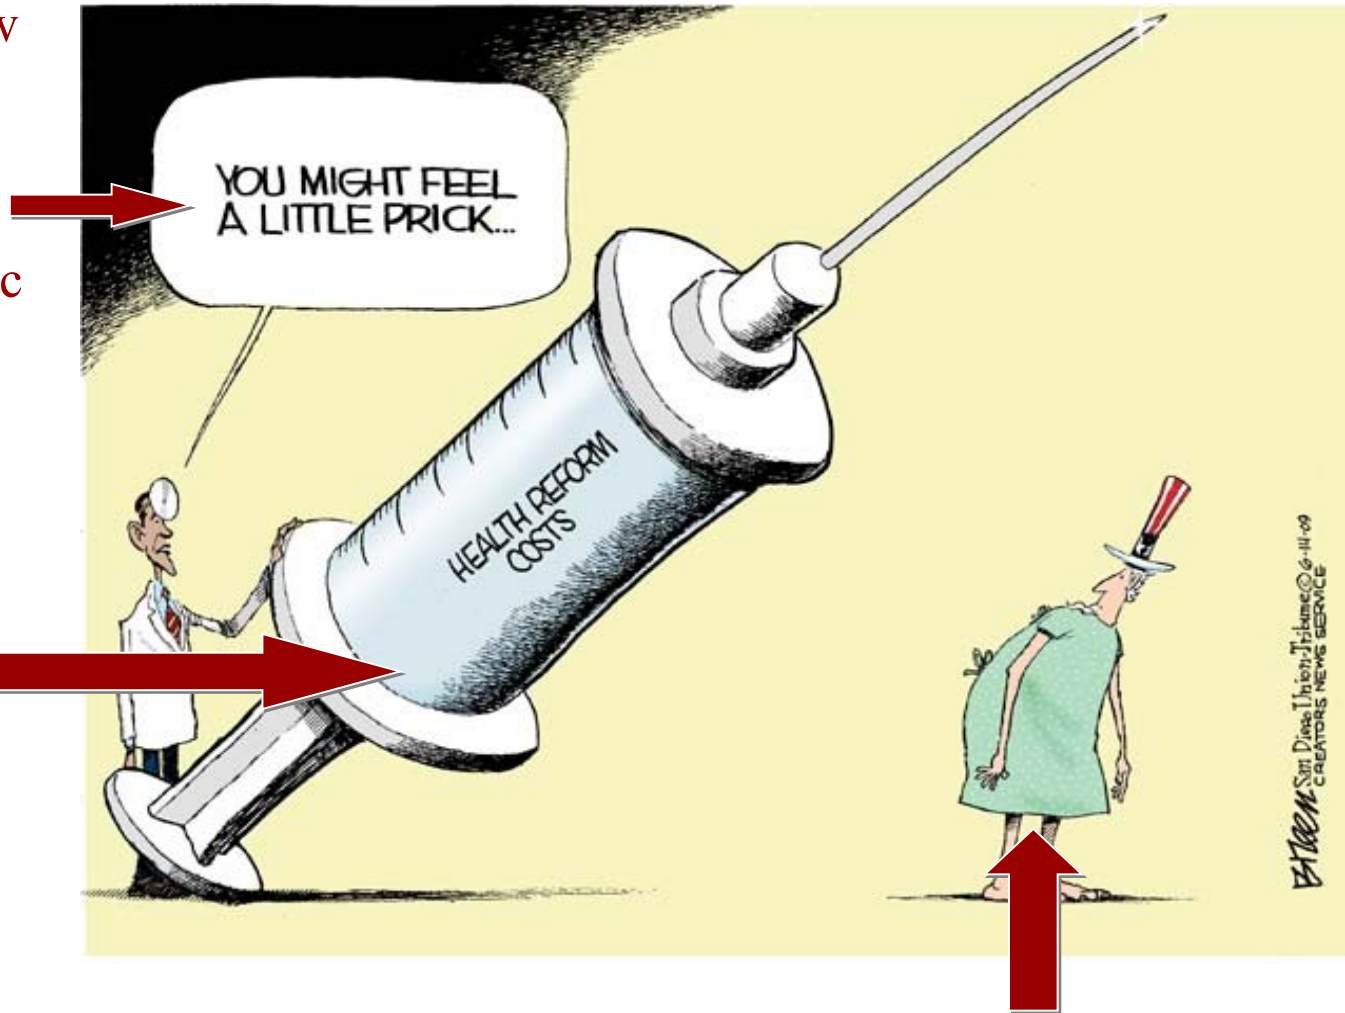

Format?

There is no real official format for this type of essay yet. Below are some suggestions:

- Intro?
 - Introduce the topic given in the question
 - In this case, historical globalization
- Perspective 1
- Perspective 2
- Perspective 3
- Unifying Relationship

Source I

- Artist uses sarcasm to show that he feels Obama's view of this cost is either unrealistic or biased...

- HUGE needle represents size of the cost of health reforms.

- Uncle Sam is a symbol of America. In this case it is suggesting the cost of these reforms will be felt by all Americans.

Source II

"John Edwards says 'I'm just going to take all these people and I'm going to cover them in Medicaid.' Well, OK, fine, that's socialized medicine. If you want a system like England has, if you want a system like Canada has, if you want a system like Cuba has, that's where we're headed."

- Former New York mayor and Republican Party Leadership candidate Rudy Giuliani July 31, 2007, at a media event in Rochester, New Hampshire

- Topic is healthcare reform
- Speaker is discussing healthcare reform...specifically universal healthcare
- Speaker is Republican, an ideology that traditionally supports a privatized system of healthcare.
- His Republican perspective does not support “socialized” medicine, as is demonstrated in his distaste for other nations socialized healthcare.

Source III

- TEXT IS VERY SIGNIFICANT!!
- Reveals specific perspective.
- Reveals message – Healthcare is a human right... there is no place for privatized medicine.

- Healthcare
- Supporters of universal health program, as revealed in the phrase “National Health Program”.
- Critical of privatized health insurance companies, as evident in “Get the insurance companies out of our healthcare.”
- Represent a group of doctors, but not ALL doctors...demonstrates even SOME in the profession support healthcare reform
- This is significant because they are in the field, and see the everyday problems with the current system...their voice is credible.

Do's & Don'ts

- Suggest a perspective.
- Use the source to support the perspective you've identified.
- Suggest possible areas the source may be referring to (ie. Another area of concern supporting Source II is RWANDA)
- Give a bit of background info.
- Criticize the perspective
- Summarize the source
- Over-interpret the information
- Preach values (we should not have done this to the Africans OR I support this perspective... etc)
- Make assumptions about info that isn't there.

Analyzing Relationship

Relationship: a connection, association or involvement.

When analyzing a source for a common relationship, consider:

- Do all the sources SHARE a perspective?
- Do all the sources reveal the conflicting forces shaping the issue?
- Do all the sources reveal possible solutions to an issue?

Be sure to:

- Identify the relationship that exists among all the sources.
- Explain the relationship that exists among all the sources.
 - Straight from the rubric!!

Social 30-1 Written Response Assignment I

Scoring Categories and Criteria

	INTERPRETATION OF SOURCES (30) When marking Interpretation of Sources , markers should consider how effectively the student • interprets and explains each source to identify an ideological perspective(s) • discusses links between the principles of liberalism and each source Note: Students are expected to address all three sources. Students may present their interpretations and discussion of links to liberalism in either a holistic or linear fashion.	IDENTIFICATION OF RELATIONSHIPS (10) When marking Interpretation of Relationships , markers should consider how effectively the student • identifies the relationship(s) that exist among the three sources • explains the relationship(s) that exist among the three sources Note: Students may identify and explain the relationship(s) in one part of the response or the identification and explanation of relationship(s) may be embedded throughout the response.	COMMUNICATION (5) When marking Communication , markers should consider how effectively the student communicates, including control of • vocabulary • sentence structure and organization • mechanics and grammar Note: Students are expected to use paragraph form for the response. Consider the proportion of error in terms of the complexity and length of response.
Excellent E	Interpretation and explanation of the source is sophisticated, insightful, and precise. The discussion of the links to the principles of liberalism is accurate, perceptive, and comprehensively developed.	Relationship(s) are accurately and perceptively identified. The explanation is thorough and comprehensive.	Vocabulary is precise and deliberately chosen. Sentence structure is controlled and sophisticated; ideas are judiciously organized. The writing demonstrates skillful control of mechanics and grammar.
Proficient Pf	Interpretation and explanation of the source is sound, specific, and adept. The discussion of the links to the principles of liberalism is consistent, logical, and capably developed.	Relationship(s) are clearly and capably identified. The explanation is appropriate and purposeful.	Vocabulary is appropriate and specific. Sentence structure is controlled and effective; ideas are purposefully organized. The writing demonstrates capable control of mechanics and grammar.
Satisfactory S	Interpretation and explanation of the source is adequate, straightforward, and conventional. The discussion of the links to the principles of liberalism is relevant and developed in a generalized fashion.	Relationship(s) are generally and adequately identified. The explanation is straightforward and conventional.	Vocabulary is conventional and generalized. Sentence structure is controlled and straightforward; ideas are adequately organized. The writing demonstrates basic control of mechanics and grammar.
Limited L	Interpretation and explanation of the source is incomplete, confused, and/or vague. The discussion of the links to the principles of liberalism may be incomplete, superficial, and imprecise.	The identification of relationship(s) is superficial and of questionable accuracy. The explanation is confusing, overgeneralized, and/or redundant.	Vocabulary is imprecise, simplistic, and/or inappropriate. Sentence structure is awkward; ideas are organized ineffectively. The writing demonstrates a faltering control of mechanics and grammar.
Poor P	Interpretation and explanation of the source is minimal, inaccurate and/or simply copied from the source. The discussion of the links to the principles of liberalism is disjointed, irrelevant, and demonstrates little or no understanding of the assigned task	The identification of relationship(s) is minimal. The explanation is tangential and/or incomplete	Vocabulary is overgeneralized and/or inaccurate. Sentence structure is uncontrolled; organization of ideas is haphazard and/or lacking. The writing demonstrates a profound lack of control of mechanics and grammar.
Zero Z	Zero is assigned to a response that fails to meet the minimum requirements of Poor .		