

"Flight Into Danger" - pp. 18 - 55
Arthur Hailey

Act One

1. Flight 98 departs from _____ en route to _____ and then to _____.
2. George Spence is about _____ years old and is a _____ for a _____ manufacturer.
3. When Spencer goes to the _____ Air Charter counter, he discovers there is _____ left.
4. The flight number is _____.
5. What has been the trouble with getting the meals aboard?
6. Spencer sits next to _____ who is _____ years old.
7. What did Spencer do during the Second World War?
8. What are the two meals available for dinner on the flight?
9. What do Spencer and Baird choose to eat?
10. What do the Captain and the First Officer choose to eat?
11. What two teams are playing the big football game the next day?
12. On page 23, the First Officer says, "Those are the sort of nights to beware of. It's in the quiet times that trouble brews." This line might be called _____.
13. What is the weather like?
14. What does Dr. Baird think is the cause of the illness on board?
15. Apart from the sick passengers, what other complications occur near the end of Act One?

Act Two

1. What is the setting for the beginning of Act Two?
2. What is the name of the local agent for Maple Leaf Charter?
3. Doctor Baird tells the passengers who have eaten fish to drink several glasses of water so as to help to _____ the _____.
4. What is an emetic? How will it help the passengers?
5. What humorous comment does the Fourth Male Passenger make about the plane's service?
6. What complication in the plot arises regarding the Captain?
7. On page 35, the doctor tells the stewardess that their chance of safety depends upon two things. What are these two possibilities?
8. Why does Dr. Baird ask the stewardess not to tell the passengers the truth about the illness of both pilots?
9. What are the two differences between the airplanes that Spencer has flown in the war and the plane he is being asked to pilot?
10. Whom does Spencer ask to help with the radio?
11. What distress signal does Spencer use?

Act Three

1. Why does the Controller divert to Seattle any flights coming in from the Pacific?
2. What is the name of the man who will talk Spencer down to a landing?
3. The Captain is a _____ man, not easily _____.
4. According to Treleven, what are the odds of Spencer landing the plane successfully?

5. Spencer mostly flew _____ and _____ in the war.
6. Why must Spencer not move the controls violently?
7. Where is the flap lever located?
8. What indicates that the wheels are down and locked?
9. According to Spencer, the plane handles like a _____.
10. Why does Spencer not want to make a practice run at landing the plane?
11. As Spencer makes the approach to land, his propellers must be set to _____ and his mixture to _____.
12. After the landing, Spencer is disgusted because, as he says, "I did a lousy stinking _____."
13. How does the stewardess express her appreciation of Spencer's successful landing?