

Social 10-1

Unit 1 - Study Guide

Related Issue #1 - To what extent should globalization shape identity?

- Part 1 includes all the terms/concepts you should know.
- Part 2 questions you should be able to respond to.
- Part 3 is a section for you to write down questions that may arise while studying that you can review with your teacher before completing any assessments

Part I: Terms / Concepts

accommodation	hybridization
acculturation	individual identity
assimilation	marginalization
collective identity	media convergence
cultural globalization	multiculturalism
cultural revitalization	perspective
digital divide	political globalization
economic globalization	social globalization
environmental globalization	transnational corporation
globalization	worldview
homogenization	universalization

Part II: Questions to Respond To

- How does globalization shape your identity?
 - What are the factors (key influences) that shape who you are?
 - How do traditions, language and clothing help to express individual identity?
 - What affect do collectives or groups have on identity?
 - Why is language important to collective identities?
 - What is slang and jargon? What is its purpose?
 - How does our identity change in context?
 - How can our identities be connected with people in other countries (i.e. Coltan)
 - What are the opportunities and challenges to increased global connections?
 - How is identity impacted by globalization?
-
- List and describe four forces of globalization -(trade, transportation, communication technology and media)?
 - How does globalization affect economies?
 - How are politics affected by globalization?
 - What affect can globalization have on the environment?
 - What are the social impacts of globalization?-
How have Metis groups and groups in Bolivia attempted to revitalize their cultures?
 - What are the challenges to identity in a globalized world?
-

- What is meant by the digital divide? How can this be overcome?
 - How does media affect diversity? Is it promoted or challenged?
 - What does techno-isolation mean?
 - What is the effect that media has on world events? What effect do world events have on your identity?
 - How can media affect our level of information or knowledge about the world (stories that are told and stories that are not)
 - How does American media affect the world?
 - What are the other media influences on our culture?
-

- What role does language play in the life of a person? Culture?
- How does globalization challenge languages?
- What is an endangered language? How do languages die?
- What can be (should be?) done to protect an endangered language?
- Why is English a dominant language?
- How can individual cultures be promoted and protected?
- What is cultural revitalization? What are the challenges to this and the opportunities of this?
- How do governments promote language and culture? Should governments promote language and culture?
- What role do international organizations have in promoting languages and cultures?

Part III: Questions I Have

* * * * *