

Social Studies 10-1

Fort Saskatchewan Next Step: 780-992-0101

Course Description:

In Social Studies 10-1 students will explore multiple perspectives on the origins of globalization and the local, national, and international impacts of globalization on lands, cultures, economies, human rights, and quality of life. Students will examine the relationships among globalization, citizenship, and identity to enhance skills for citizenship in a globalizing world. The infusion of multiple perspectives will allow students to examine the effects of globalization on peoples in Canada and throughout the world, including the impact on Indigenous and Francophone communities. They will then be able to answer the Key Issue Question for the 10-1 course: To what extent should we embrace globalization?

Resources:

- Access to EIPS Brightspace website (eips.brightspace.com)
- Pens/pencils, highlighters, binder, notebook, and/or paper

Assessment:

Assignments are considered formative, meaning you can apply feedback from the teacher to improve your achievement before completing the unit summative assessments. Summative assessments have two parts: Part A consists of multiple choice and matching questions to demonstrate knowledge of the lesson content; and Part B consists of one of two types of written responses: Source Analysis and Position Paper. All students are required to complete the EIPS Common Exam which is comprised of two parts: Part A: Writing and Part B: Multiple Choice. Assessments must be written at Next Step or supervised by a staff member at an EIPS school (shared students).

As per EIPS Administrative Procedure 360: Learning Assessment

Students will:

- 1.1. be active learners demonstrating their learning through opportunities provided by the teacher;
- 1.2. complete tasks to the best of their ability to demonstrate their achievement; and
- 1.3. fulfill the requirements of a missed summative assessment or demonstrate a different level of understanding through a reassessment opportunity.

PowerSchool:

Make sure you are accessing PowerSchool regularly to monitor your progress and review assessment information. The due dates provided will be placed in the comment area for each assignment. This allows the teacher to keep track of your progress and to ensure you complete the course. If you are not going to meet a deadline, please contact your teacher with a plan on when you expect to submit the missed assignment. Any assignment not handed in by the due date will receive an NHI until the assignment is handed in. Any assignment handed in will be checked off, and when the assignment is assessed, a percentage mark will be entered. If something does not seem correct, or information is incorrect, please contact your teacher so errors can be fixed promptly.

Academic Support:

Students are required to check in and meet with their instructor(s) weekly. It is very important that students check their school email often to ensure they do not miss important information about the course. Announcements will also be posted on Brightspace.

At Next Step, we believe that consistent engagement in learning is key to academic success. Students who do not actively participate in their course for a period of 30 days will be withdrawn from the course. Should a student wish to reengage, they will be required to meet with our Student Success Team to discuss their commitment and develop a plan to ensure future success. As we say at Next Step Outreach, "small steps are still progress," and we are here to support every step of your journey. This policy ensures students remain committed to their learning, while also providing them with the necessary support to reengage effectively.
