Teacher Key and Suggested Responses

Equivalent accurate answers should also receive credit.

Parts One to Three

Objective answer blanks have been filled directly in the booklet tables above.

Part Four: Suggested Responses

1. Jesus stands at the centre of Christianity because Christians understand him as Christ or Messiah, teacher, saviour, and the one whose life reveals God. His teachings, death, and resurrection shape Christian belief and practice.
2. Accept any accurate example. A strong response might use the Good Samaritan and explain that Jesus teaches neighbour-love, compassion, and moral responsibility that crosses social boundaries.
3. The crucifixion is significant because Christians see it as an act of self-giving love and a means of reconciliation with God. The resurrection is significant because it represents victory over death, the truth of Jesus' identity, and hope for new life.
4. The Old Testament contains the sacred history, law, prophecy, and writings of Israel. The New Testament centers on Jesus, the gospels, the letters, and the early church. Christians treat both as scripture but read them with different emphases.
5. The Trinity is the Christian teaching that there is one God in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. It is not three gods, but one divine life known in a threefold way.
6. Baptism marks initiation into the Christian community and is often linked with cleansing, repentance, belonging, and new life in Christ. Many Christians treat it as a sacrament.
7. The Eucharist or Communion is a sacred meal that remembers Jesus, especially the Last Supper and his self-giving. It expresses faith, unity, remembrance, and, in many traditions, a deep spiritual presence of Christ.
8. All three branches are Christian, but they differ in history, authority, and worship. A strong answer may note that Catholicism is linked with the pope, Orthodoxy with ancient eastern churches, and Protestantism with Reformation movements and different approaches to authority.
9. The church gathers believers for worship, prayer, teaching, sacraments, and fellowship. It also often serves through charity, education, care for the poor, and other forms of community service.
10. Christmas is a major holy day because it celebrates the birth or incarnation of Jesus. Easter is a major holy day because it celebrates his death and resurrection. Together they express central moments of Christian belief.
11. Accept any accurate symbol. A strong answer might choose the cross and explain that it represents Jesus' crucifixion, sacrificial love, salvation, and hope through resurrection.
12. Accept any accurate example, such as the influence of churches, schools, hospitals, charities, holidays, place names, or moral language shaped by Christianity in Canadian history.

Part Five: Student-Choice Teacher Notes

Option A: Christian Art, Music, or Symbol

Responses will vary. Give full marks when the student identifies one Christian artwork, hymn, symbol, or monument, describes it accurately, explains the beliefs or values it communicates, shows one reason it still matters, and includes at least two credible sources.

Option B: Christian Community or Denomination Study

Responses will vary. Full-credit work identifies a real denomination, church, ministry, or organization in Canada, describes it in concrete detail, explains how beliefs appear in worship or service, names one contribution to Canadian society, and provides at least two credible sources.
