

Module 5 Assignment: Criminal Profiling

/41

Lesson A: Creating a Criminal Profile

1. To create a criminal profile, with what do profilers compare the information from a crime? (2 marks)

2. Explain why a criminal profile may be altered after it has been completed. (2 marks)

3. What was George Metesky's motive for setting numerous explosive devices around New York City? (2 marks)

4. Discuss how Dr. James Brussel's profile helped to catch the Mad Bomber. (2 marks)

Lesson B: The Use of Criminal Profiling in Homicide Investigations

5. Identify four pieces of evidence that support the assumption that Ted Bundy was an organized offender. (4 marks)

6. Identify four pieces of evidence that support the assumption that Richard Trenton Chase was a disorganized offender. (4 marks)

Name:

7. Identify four pieces of evidence (two must be organized traits and two must be disorganized traits) that support the assumption that Jeffrey Dahmer was a combination offender? (4 marks).

Lesson C. Geographic Profiling

8. What did Canadian Dr. Kim Rossmo contribute to the field of geographic profiling? (2 marks)

9. List six data sources used in the construction of a geographic profile. (3 marks)

10. Identify a criminal investigation where geographic profiling did not help to apprehend a suspect. Explain why geographic profiling was not successful in this case. (3 marks)

11. Describe a criminal investigation where geographic profiling was proven accurate or helped to apprehend a suspect directly. (3 marks)

Lesson D. Criminal Profiling in Homicide Crime Case Studies

Case Study #1: The Railway Killers

12. a. After John Duffy was convicted of murder and rape, what information did he reveal to a psychologist that was surprising to police? (1 mark)

Name:

b. What did this revelation lead to? (1 mark)

13. How did criminal profiling lead to the arrest of one of the Railway Killers? (3 marks)

Case Study #2: The BTK Strangler

14. Explain whether the BTK Strangler was an organized or disorganized offender (2 marks)

15. a. Identify the person in Dennis Lynn Rader family who helped police arrest him.(1 mark)

b. Describe exactly how this family member helped investigators? (2 marks)