

Critical Response Criteria

The purpose of this format is not only to show understanding, but to solidify how to find and communicate answers.

Answer questions in the following format - there are four parts:

STATEMENT (Thesis)

- Use the question to create a STATEMENT (Thesis) in the answer.
 - EXAMPLE

Question: What international organization divided Palestine in 1947?

Statement: The international organization that divided Palestine in 1947 was.....

EVIDENCE

- Find EVIDENCE from the text to support your statement. Give at least 3 reasons that your statement is true. Use embedded quotations or summarize proof from the text followed by page numbers.
 - EXAMPLE

“The international organization that divided Palestine in 1947 was the UN. At this time, the passed a resolution to divide “the region that is today Israel and the Palestine territories (p.14).”

INTERPRET

- Explain your proof. You need to INTERPRET the evidence that you chose. Restating the quote is not an interpretation.
 - This means that.....
 - This tells us that.....
 - This shows that.....
 - From this we know.....

- Now we understand that.....
- Therefore.....
- This is important because.....
- EXAMPLE

“The international organization that divided Palestine in 1947 was the UN. At this time, the passed a resolution to divide “the region that is today Israel and the Palestine territories,” (p.14) turning the area into two separate states.

CONNECT

- Add comments, either personal or summary to CONNECT your understanding.
 - EXAMPLE

The international organization that divided Palestine in 1947 was the UN. At this time, the passed a resolution to divide “the region that is today Israel and the Palestine territories,” (p.14) turning the area into two separate states (p.3). The Palestinians were understandably upset at losing their land. I imagine that they feel similar to the First Peoples of Canada who signed treaties or the Italian, Japanese and Ukrainian Canadians who lost their land during wartime.

I would like to thank Mrs. Shepherd of Bev Facey Community High School for sharing her resources, knowledge and kindness with respect to this course. Many projects, documents and ideas you will be exploring in this course were originally from Mrs. Shepherd, that she has generously shared with me. I would also like to thank Mrs. Devin and Mr. Albert for their continued support and guidance.
