Field Testing Learning and Teaching Resource List

Grade 10

Preface

This Field Testing Learning and Teaching Resource List identifies potential learning and teaching resources aligned to the learning outcomes of the draft Alberta curriculum, to support the field testing of the draft curriculum. The field testing process will provide insight and feedback on the draft curriculum and what learning and teaching resources may best support the delivery of curriculum. Feedback from field testing teachers will help inform which learning and teaching resources will be identified for potential authorization. Teachers have the responsibility to exercise their professional judgment, especially when utilizing resources. Once curriculum is finalized, authorized learning and teaching resources will be available on new.LearnAlberta.ca.

This Field Testing Learning and Teaching Resource List is only to be used for field testing of the draft curriculum and not meant to be used as authorized learning and teaching resources for the current curriculum. The learning and teaching resources on this list are not authorized by Alberta Education and Childcare and are suggestions only.
