

Act Two, Scene Four

Synopsis

Two months later, Rose has immersed herself in church service. Cory has graduated from high school without a football scholarship. The play shifts into falling action, as the final conflict between Troy and Cory is resolved.

1. What is ironic about Troy's job as a garbage truck driver?

2. How does the final confrontation between Troy and Cory begin? How does it escalate?
